RULES, &c.

1. The Incumbent of St Andrew's Church, Brechin, shall be Librarian, unless it shall seem meet to the Synod of the Diocese to appoint another.

2. The Brechin Diocesan Library, though specially intended for the use of the Clergy of the Diocese,* shall be open to others, on the written recommendation of any of the Clergy, in terms of Form hereunto appended—the Clergyman who thus recommends being held personally responsible for the work or works given out.

3. The Librarian shall keep a Book in which he shall regularly enter the date when, and the names of the persons to whom, all books are given out; and he shall give out no volume without a written order for the same (which order, if called for, he must produce) under the penalty of being personally responsible for the damage or loss that may be incurred.

4. No person shall be allowed to have more than Six Works belonging to the Library in his possession at one time; and the books must be sent for, and returned at the expense and risk of the person taking them out.

5. If a book be lost or receive any damage, the person losing or damaging it shall be obliged to furnish the Library with another copy of the same edition of that work, or one of equal value.

6. No book, until it has been a year in the Library, shall be retained by any person longer than three months. After it has been a year in the Library, it may be retained six months; and at the expiration of that time, a fresh application must be made to the
